

Monster goals for 2013

The monsters are really looking forward to the year ahead.

They need your help.

What goal should they set themselves for this year?

A goal could be something they really want to do, for example, this could be visiting a special place.

A goal could be something they really want to achieve, for example, learning a new skill.

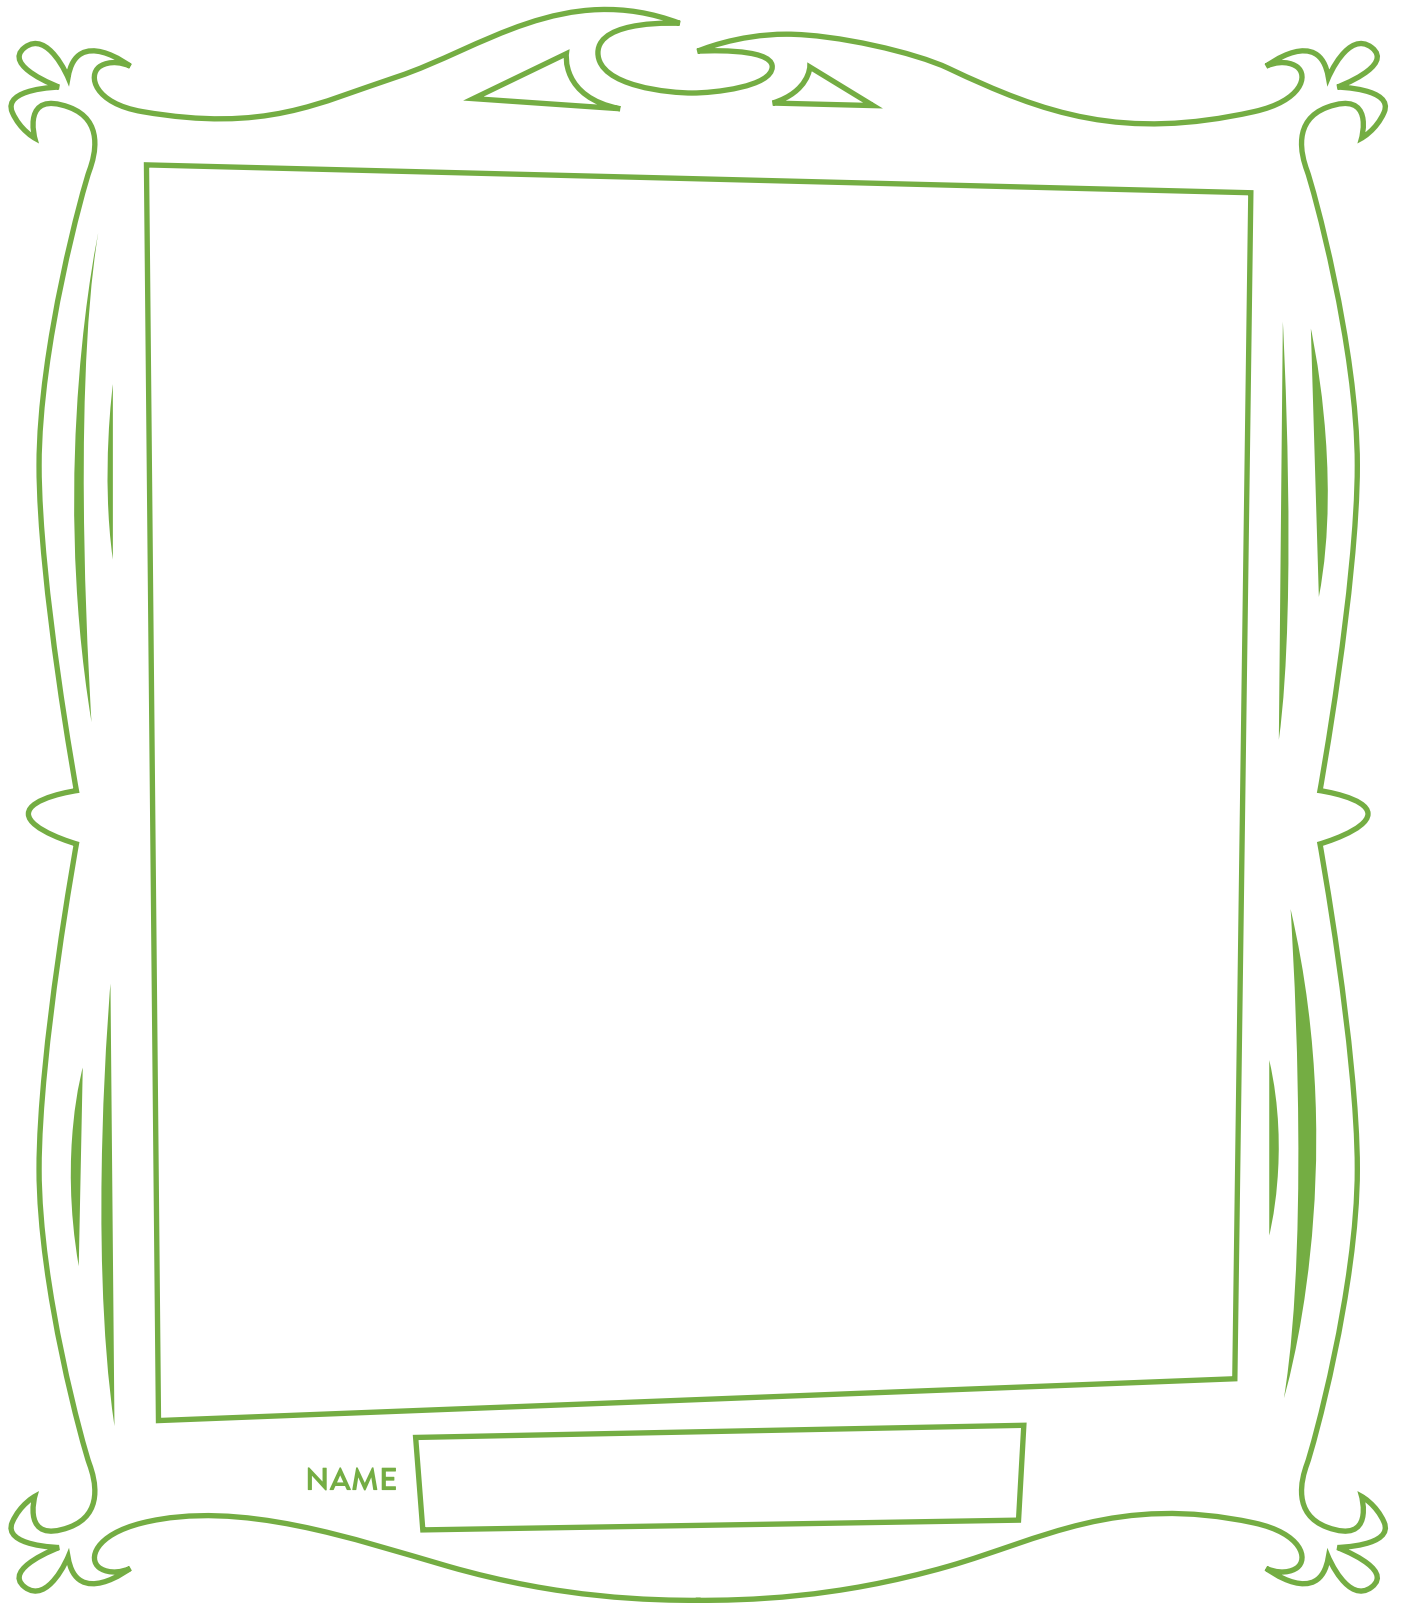

Can you draw what you think your Monster would like to set as their goal for 2013?

Send us your drawings and we'll add them to our Facebook gallery and blog - email dannie@teachyourmonstertoread.com.

Other suggestions for further monster activities are very welcome!
